

TITLE: Multivariate Extremes and Geometry

By Paul Embrechts

ABSTRACT:

In this talk I will discuss some results on the properties of extremes in data from certain multivariate densities. The results very much use the geometric properties of the level sets of the density under investigation. Some examples relevant for quantitative risk management will be given. This research is based on joint work with Guus Balkema and Natalia Nolde.